

General Camping Information

The Philadelphia Folk Festival Campground is situated on a large farmer's field and has been home to thousands of Campers over the years. Camping spots are first come first served but the Camping Committee time-releases reserved areas as needed. Campers are asked to keep their site footprint minimal especially in prime areas so everyone can find a good spot. Don't forget to bring sturdy footwear, Water bottle, flashlight and essential food/medicines and of course your guitar.

For more information visit Camping HQ once onsite or contact the Camping committee at PFFCAMPING@COMCAST.NET

Campground Gates: Gates open for "All-Festival with Camping" ticket holders at 10am on Thursday of Festival and close at Noon on Monday Post-Fest. Ticketholders with Wednesday Early entry may enter at 2PM

Entrance to the campground is by wristlet and everyone, even children, must have a wristlet. Day trippers without a camping ticket are not permitted in the Campground.

Tent/RV Camping: The Campground is designed with separate areas for Tent and RV camping. This is a farmer's field and as such there is no water/electric provided to your site. Water is provided by well stations situated around the Campground. Generators are permitted to run in Heavy Camping areas only from 9am-9pm.

- Light Tent Camping is included with your "All-Festival with Camping" ticket.
 - o Plan to park your vehicle in either the paid or free parking lots and utilize our Gear Shuttles
 - o No Vehicles or Generators in Light camping.
 - o Light camping has a "quieter" camping area for families and others who want a little more peace and quiet.
 - o See additional Campground rules for more information.
- Heavy/RV Camping requires an "All-Festival with Camping" tickets and an additional RV ticket.
 - o Only one (1) RV ticket is required per vehicle.
 - o During heavy arrival periods you may be directed to stage your RV in a satellite lot for vehicle tagging and then you will be directed to the Campground where Volunteers will assist you with parking your RV. Festival Signage will be updated as necessary.
 - o Please move your tow vehicle to a parking lot ASAP
 - o NO Ground Tents in Heavy Camping
 - o RV camping requires 10 feet of sleeping space in vehicle.
 - o Wheels must be chocked to prevent movement.
 - o Engine must remain OFF and Vehicle remain parked. Vehicles removed from Campground will be denied reentry.
 - o See additional Campground rules for more information.
- VIP (previously FOF) Camping
 - o The VIP ticket allows for Camping in our prime VIP areas in both Light and Heavy Camping.
 - o You are not required to camp in these VIP areas to enjoy the other amenities included with the VIP ticket.

Gear Shuttles:

- The free Gear Shuttle runs during normal ticket office/volunteer committee hours.
- Unauthorized vehicles are not permitted in the campground so plan to utilize the gear shuttles.

- The Shuttle trucks will operate around a prescribed route from both the paid (Point lot) and free (Wolford lot) parking lots to the campground. Weather/ground conditions permitting the Shuttles will get you as close to your site as possible.
- Be sure to pack and label all gear appropriately for transport from your car into the shuttle truck. Our trucks have cab space available so you can stay with your gear. No riders are permitted to travel in the bed of the truck. The festival is not responsible for loss or damage to equipment.
- The Shuttle team will issue ticketholders their wristband and take Volunteers to secure their badge and wristband.
- Sunday, the Gear Shuttle will be available in the campground to assist campers to get their gear out of the campground.
- Monday morning, weather and ground condition permitting campers may be allowed to bring their vehicle into the campground to pack up their gear. This is dependent on the Ground Conditions.
- Please check back or visit the Camping Committee Facebook page for Schedule updates as we get closer to the festival.

ADA Access: The festival attempts to accommodate all patrons. It should be noted, however, that we are a temporary site, created just for the weekend. The ground is rough – it is a working farm the rest of the year, and our space is limited. The Camping committee provides several areas reserved for ADA camping and ADA parking is available inside Camping Gate. Please contact PFFCAMPING@COMCAST.NET for more information.
